

Moving to the front

Underline the adverbial in each sentence.

Rewrite the sentence with the adverbial at the beginning.

1. She crept along the corridor as quietly as possible.

2. There were hundreds of stalls at the fair.

3. We go to the farmers' market on Saturdays.

4. There's a traffic jam on the motorway every morning.

5. He cut out the shapes as carefully as possible.

6. I watched the fireworks from my bedroom window.

7. The boy ran down the lane as if his life depended on it.

8. He poured out the drinks without a single spill.

How did you do?

Adverbials for you

Each sentence begins with an adverbial.

Complete each sentence, choosing a verb from the box to help you.

finished

kicked

posed

stood

ate visited found

disappeared

jumped

will confiscate

fell

sat

1. After four hours, _____.
2. With a hoot of laughter, _____.
3. In the twinkling of an eye, _____.
4. At the top of the hill _____.
5. On holiday, _____.
6. Before the football match, _____.
7. With perfect balance, _____.
8. Under the stone, _____.
9. In no time at all, _____.
10. At the table _____.
11. At that moment, _____.
12. In future, _____.

How did you do?

Your own adverbials

Write an adverbial in each gap to say more about the verb.

1. _____ I could see a squirrel.
2. _____ the man greeted his friend.
3. _____ the sun came out.
4. _____ no one will be allowed into this room.
5. _____ he had finished his work.
6. _____ my dad buys a newspaper.
7. _____ the boat was missing _____.
8. _____ the bluebells grew _____.
9. _____ he jumped _____.
10. _____ my brother swims _____.
11. _____ George walked _____.
12. _____ we saw farmers working _____.

'Where?', 'When?'
and 'How?'

How did you do?

