LAST WORD

I'm the Star	Jennifer Curry	124
--------------	-----------------------	-----

Last Word

I'm the Star

Families come in many guises,
Many shapes and many sizes.

First meet the babies, gummy and gooey,
Often wet and always pooey,
Then mums and dads, sisters and brothers,
Grans and grandads...plus a few others.

We're glad they're there, if they weren't we'd
miss them,
But why? oh why? do we have to kiss them?
And the jobs they give us! You wouldn't believe it!
Wash it! Dry it! Tidy and clear it!

Sometimes we get mad (a bit!)
But when we do they throw a fit.
So mostly we chill out, stay cool,
And let the grown-ups play the fool.

Breakfast...dinner...tea... – I'd say
Meals are the best times of our day.
And when summer comes, if we go away,
We have brilliant times on our holiday.

Families come in many guises,
Many shapes and many sizes.
But take a good look and you'll find ME,
For I'm the STAR on our family tree.

Jennifer Curry
