Pickety Witch

Pickety Witch, Pick-Pickety Witch
Picka, Picka, Pickety Witch.

Which wicked witch went every which way?
Which stayed behind? Don't know? Can't say.

Which boiling cauldron bubbled magic spells?
Which ones just simmered and made nasty smells?

Which witch's wand shot stars far and wide?
Which ones hung limp as a worm that's just died?

Which witch's cat could whistle and bark?
Which ones were scared to go out in the dark?

Which witch's broomstick streamed to the sky?
Which ones went backwards? Don't ask me why!

Which witch has lifted the Superwitch Cup
While the rest of the coven gave in and gave up?

Pickety Witch, it's Pickety Witch
Picka, Picka, Pickety Witch.

Going Shopping with Willy the Wise and Wizened Wizard

Every Saturday Willy the wise and wizened wizard
went into town to do his weekly shopping.

He'd get his toiletries from Roots the Alchemist, his clothes from Sparks and Mensa,
new ideas for games and tricks from Ploys R Us and his food from the supermarket – usually Asda,
because he thought it sounded like a magic word...
"Asda Cadabra!"

His special ingredients and potion mixtures, the secret things on his list like

17 newts' eyes, 21 frog tongues,
36 bat wings, 15 hog warts,
3 witch pimples, 9 rattlesnake rattles,
one kg of six-inch pins,
3 bags of all-purpose filler and mixer
plus a new universal scoop, stirrer and spreader

Well, Willy the wise and wizened wizard got them from a specialist shop:
Voodoo It All – The Druid Yourself Store.
