

PETRIFIED POTTERS

A version of musical chairs/stone lions, where the guests have to freeze when the music stops as if Petrified by Hermione's 'Petrificus Totalus' spell.

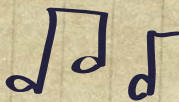

Instead of dancing to the music, you could get your players to duel with their wands while the music is playing.

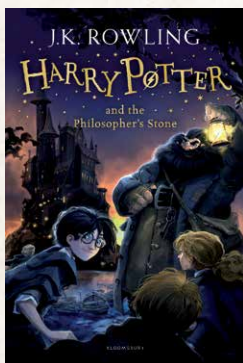

When it stops, players who move in the 'frozen' moments are out.

Wave your wand to 'unfreeze' guests as you restart the music for the next round.

The winner is the last 'frozen' guest and receives 20 house points for their house.

You will need:

- * Music
- * Wand to 'unfreeze' guests
