DESIGN YOUR OWN VOLCANO HOUSE

At the start of Bin Boy, Billy is holidaying in a hollowed out volcano which has been turned in gazillion-pound home by his stepdad. Design your own crazy volcano house in the space below. Try to design at least five rooms and include gadgets for a superhero or supervillain.

DIARY WRITING EXERCISE

Imagine you are Billy/Bin Boy. Write two diary entries about your life with Phil/Mr Pernicious - the first should be set at the beginning of the Bin Boy, and the second should reflect Billy's feelings at the end of the book. Your diary entries should demonstrate how Billy's relationship with his stepdad has changed.

DESIGN YOUR OWN SUPERHERO COSTUME

Taking inspiration from Bin Boy, design your own superhero costume using a household item. Billy's outfit is a bin, but what object in your house could you use as a costume? You could use anything you can find in your home, like kitchen utensils or a duvet. Draw your superhero costume design in the space below.

Things to consider:

- What is the name of your superhero?
- What is your superhero origin story? Who or what are they trying to protect or defeat?
